PAUPERISM IN NEW YORK.—While its pauperism is its shame, the charity of New York is its glory, and covers a multitude of its sins. The city has one hundred and five private charities fully organized, and constantly engaged in succoring the distressed. Such in stitutious as the Five Point Mission, the Children's Aid Society, the several orphan asylums, dren's Aid Society, the several orphan asymms, homes for the indigent, and hospitals for the sick, which are mainly supported by private funds, are aggressive charities. They seek suffering instead of waiting for it to seek them, as almoners of public funds must always do, and they find a vast deal more of it. While they do not wait for the last extremity of distress before extending relief, they discover tress before extending relief, they discover cases of poverty as urgent as any which have been stated, and many only a little less abject, which never come to the knowledge of the public functionaries. In the relief of such destitution as they find, these private charities expend more money annually than is required by the Commissioners of Charities and Correction for all the sick, destitute, and criminals coming into their charge. It is therefore apparent that hardly half the pauperism of the city is a matter of official knowledge, and the gaunt legion of 22,782 starving people is but a fraction of the army of misery which the city

Another and perhaps more sorrowful phase of human helplessness is found in the public hospitals; and it is equally convincing proof of the fact that New York in her youth is afflicted with the disease of pauperism to an extent normal only to a city in its decrepitude. Bellevue Hospital at the foot of East Twenty-sixth street, and Charity Hospital on Blackwelt's Island, which are the two great receptacles for the sick and injured thrown upon the public authorities, last year received 17,-190 patients. Of this army of the helpless, many when in bealth were self-sustaining, but all, with a few exceptions among the victims of street accidents, belonged to the class that is constantly doing uncertain battle with the wolf at the door, so that if disabled even for a day they must receive charity. In this sense they are paupers and to be added to the public burdens. Besides these, the 1000 Yards of White Goods, hospitals for contagious diseases received during the year 6,165, and the Bureau for the Relief of Outdoor Sick prescribed for 16,850 persons, who becme paupers for the hour by some simple sickness for which they could not provide the means of relief. Grouping now all the poor for a general view of this metropolitan misery, I must add to the list the 4,315 permanent inmates of the public almshouses, which brings the startling total of 66,286 persons dependent during the year upon the public charities. To these must be added at least 50.000 succored by the private agencies, making a grand total of 116,286 human beings who, in the year 1870, in this city of New York, were the recipients of electrosynary aid. This shows the poverty of the city complete; but to see its poverty, its improvidence, and its crime at a glance, add to the figures given the 40,205 who during the year applied for work at the Labor Bureau of the Commissioners of Charities, and the 71,849 who became inmates of the various prisons and refermatories of the city. Here we are face to face with the fact that 228,330 out of a population of 942,292, or only a small fraction less than one-quarter of the whole population of the city, were dependent during the year, in whole or in part, upon the other three-quarters.—The Galaxy for March.

A CURIOUS CASE was brought to the notice of Judge Scott, on Saturday. A man named Julius Petrokowski, a professor of music, was charged with abducting a young lady by her covered that the girl, who is a beautiful and most etherial Polish blonde, about 18 years of age, was forced against her will to marry a young man of her own race, named Antonia young man of her own race, named Antonia and the young lady, who have the following local board of stockholders:

Wm. G. Cazenove, President.

Wm. H. Marbury, Arthur Herbert, John W. Green, Samuel F. Gregory, C. W. Green, Samuel F. Gregory, R. S. Leadbeater, Beache. Pzybyiska, were joined together in Church on the 10th of this month. During the performance of the ceremony Byonistawa fainted, and she was taken to her husband's home almost insensible. Soon after her arrival the unwilling bride suddenly jumped and made an attack on her quondam spouse with a stiletto when he attempted to embrace her, and ran out of the house. She made her way to a friend's domicile, Mr. Julius Petrokowski, and there remained till Wednesday. In the meantime the husband went to his mother-in-law and made his complaint; hence the action against the music professor for abduction. Justice Scott informed the mother and the girl's stepfather, Julius Gorski, that he could do nothing in the matter, as the young lady was old enough to decide for herself where she should live. He also asked why the husband did not appear in the case, as he was to all in-tents and purposes most directly interested. Antonio Siliskowski, the discarded husband, sat in the back part of the court-room, but did not approach the justice's seat. The case was dismissed.—N. Y. Standard.

A Young Girl's Thoughts.—Parepa Rosa was singing Casta Diva in one of the western cities. Folding her white hands on her bosom, and raising her tender eyes, she commenced her Eolian notes, the melody swelling and breaking into a gush of plaintive, supplicating harmony, that vibrated through every chord of the heart. I glanced at my friend at my side. radiant in her dress and halo of golden hair and and there was a sweet pensive look on her downeast face. The music ceased, and the audience, wild with enthusiasm. was demanding an en core, when my beautiful companion raised her large serene eyes to mine and said; "Isn't it

"Yes." replied I quickly, sharing her feel ing: although so glorious, it touches a melancholy chord. "O, nonsence!" she exclaimed, "I don't mean that! You know very well that I don't pretend to appreciate this kind of musical jargon. I mean isn't it sad to see so many young men bald headed! I wonder it it isn't dissipation, or the climate, or what? Do you know that I have been picking out bald-heads down in the parquette, and would you believe it, I actually counted twenty-nine."

When e misguided and imprudent votary of pleasure inds that he has imbibed the seeds of this pain all disease, it too often happens that an ill-times ense of shame or dread of discovery deill-times ense of sname or dread of discovery de-ters him from applying to those who, from educa-tion and respectability, can alone befriend him, delaying till the constitutional symptoms of this horrid disease makes their appearance, such as ulcerated sore throat, diseased nose, nocturnal pains in the head and limbs, dimness of sight, descrees nodes on the ship bones and arms deafness, nodes on the shin bones and arms, blotches on the head, face and extremities, progressing with frightful rapidity, till at last the palate of the mouth or the bones of the nose fall in, and the victim of this awful disease becomes a horrid object of commisseration till death puts a period to his dreadful suffering, by sending him to that undiscovered country "from whence no traveller returns." It is a melancholy fact that thousands DIE victims to this terrible disease, through falling into the hands of ignorant or unskilful PRE-TENDERS, who, by the use of that deadly Poison, Mercury, &c., destroy the consitution, and incapable of curing, keep the unhappy sufferer month after month taking their noxious injurious compounds, and instead of being re-stored to a renewal of Life, Vigorand Happiness in despair leave him with ruined Health to sigh over his galling disappointment.
